

Canadian Classic Rodeo Association — Official Bylaws

1. Organization Purpose

The CCRA exists to promote rodeo sports, support competitors, and maintain fair and safe competition standards.

2. Membership

- Open to all competitors meeting eligibility requirements.
- Members must pay annual dues.
- Members must follow all rules and bylaws.

3. Board of Directors

- Responsible for governance, rule enforcement, and event oversight.
- Board consists of elected members serving 2-year terms.
- Board meetings require quorum of 50% + 1.

4. Elections

- Held annually at the general meeting.
- Members may nominate candidates.
- Voting is conducted by secret ballot.

5. Financial Policy

- All funds must be used for CCRA operations, events, and development.
- Treasurer must provide quarterly financial reports.
- Annual audit is required.

6. Discipline

- Members violating rules may face penalties.
- Board may suspend or revoke membership.
- Appeals must be submitted in writing.

7. Amendments

- Bylaws may be amended with 2/3 majority vote.
- Proposed changes must be submitted 30 days before voting.