

Canadian Classic Rodeo Association — Official Rulebook

1. Introduction

The Canadian Classic Rodeo Association (CCRA) establishes rules to ensure fairness, safety, and professionalism across all sanctioned rodeo events. All competitors, officials, and volunteers must follow these rules at all times.

2. General Rules

- Contestants must conduct themselves with professionalism and respect.
- Abuse of livestock, staff, or fellow competitors results in immediate disqualification.
- Competitors must check in at least 30 minutes before their event.
- Alcohol or drug use before or during competition is strictly prohibited.
- All tack and equipment must meet safety standards.

3. Arena Safety

- Only authorized personnel may enter the arena during active events.
- Riders must wear boots, long sleeves, and protective gear.
- Horses must be inspected before entering the arena.
- Unsafe tack (broken reins, damaged saddles) must be repaired before competition.

4. Event Rules

4.1 Barrel Racing

- Standard cloverleaf pattern must be followed.
- Knocking a barrel = 5-second penalty.
- Deviating from the pattern = disqualification.
- Timer starts when the horse crosses the start line.

4.2 Tie-Down Roping

- Calf must receive a fair head start.
- Rope must remain on calf until contestant reaches it.
- Calf must remain tied for 6 seconds after completion.
- Rough handling results in a no-time ruling.

4.3 Team Roping

- Header must rope horns, neck, or half-head.
- Heeler must rope both hind legs; one-leg catch = 5-second penalty.
- Steer must be turned smoothly; dragging results in disqualification.

4.4 Saddle Bronc Riding

- Rider must mark out with spurs touching horse's shoulders at first jump.
- Must stay on for 8 seconds.
- Touching horse or equipment with free hand = disqualification.

4.5 Bull Riding

- Rider must stay on for 8 seconds.
- Touching bull or self with free hand = disqualification.
- Spurs must be dull and approved.

5. Scoring

- Judges score both rider and animal performance.
- Penalties are added to final time or score.
- Judges' decisions are final.

6. Protests

- Must be submitted within 30 minutes of event completion.
- Must include written explanation.
- CCRA Board reviews all protests.

7. Rule Enforcement

- Violations may result in warnings, penalties, disqualification, or suspension.
- Severe misconduct may result in permanent removal from CCRA events.

8. Season Structure

- Points accumulate across all sanctioned rodeos.
- Champions are determined by total points at season end.
